

Young love is a flame,
very pretty, often very hot and fierce, but still only light and flickering.
The love of the older and disciplined heart is as coals, deep burning, unquenchable.

– Henry Ward Beecher, 1843-87

Whether you met in class or in the Grill...

Whether your romance began as “puppy love” or grew from a long-lasting friendship...

Whether it started with a Sadie date or a boy’s persistent pursuit...

Each ACU love story is a golden thread woven into the tapestry of our larger story as a university and a community.

We at ACU are encouraged by your example of faithful marriage. May your love for each other continue to burn more and more deeply with each passing year.
